Hello Textron Union Family,

A.D.B.R.

The Union has continued to remain engaged with the Company concerning the paycheck shortage issue. As of today, we believe the scope and depth of the matter has become very clear and final steps are being put in place bringing resolution to the problems caused to our union family. The IAM understands negotiated wages and benefits are the lifeblood to our family's survival. Therefore, we will work until everyone affected is made whole.
